A Year Of Mixed Feelings

This has been a year of mixed feelings at the Barton College. Sadness. Happiness. Fatigue. Energy. Giving up. Fighting. Hating class. Liking class. Apathy. Concern. Fear. Frustration. BCCJC has all the symptoms of growing pains. The sophomores are wondering how the freshmen will ever be able to hold the school together next year. The freshmen wonder how the sophomores have made it this far. But they all realize that there will always be someone to take over. BCCJC is slowly growing from infancy to adulthood.

ADMINISTRATION

1971

Capable Supervision By Dr. Robinson

Education is the nucleus of success! As our society emphasizes the need for scholastic advancement, the need for capable individuals to supervise the process is doubly important.

President C. O. Robinson is a direct representative to the Board of Trustees. As chief representative, he fulfills a variety of functions including policy and budgetary recommendations in addition to promotion of public relations.

Council Strives for Progressive School

Four members of the administrative staff constitute a formidable team which strives to make the college a progressive scholastic institution.

Dr. Raymond Wamsley, Dean of Instruction, is responsible for day and night educational programs. Since he left this post for the Presidency of Garden City Junior College, Professor Larry Carter has served as Dean of Instruction.

Dean of Administration Marshall Macy is in charge of all financial affairs and administrative details for the campus.

Jimmie Downing, Dean of Student Services, is responsible for all matters concerning students. He is not only responsible for all student organizations, but also for guidance and counseling.

Keith Trost, Director of Library Services, is in charge of the Library and Study Skills facilities.

Trustees Link Voters and College

Six elected citizens of Barton County serve as a direct link between the people of our county and the Administration of BCCJC. Concerned with higher education for all, the board is responsible for the rapport between the community and the college. The Trustees with the help of college administrators, faculty, citizens, and students have sacrificed many long hours to mold the fine educational facility we have today.

Council Members Discuss Problems

The Administrative Council was designed to serve as a consultation group to the college President. The Council consists of the President, the Deans, the Directors, a representative from the teaching staff — Prof President David Karr, and a representative from the students — Student Senate President Mark Devaney.

Secretaries Assist Administration

The secretaries of any school are an important factor in smooth operation. The same is true at BCCJC.

The Secretaries serve as a link between administration, professors, and students. This, along with other duties such as filing, mailing, taking messages, and keeping track of all happenings on campus, makes the secretary a very important part of BCCJC.

Maintenance Crews Beautify Campus

Keeping the buildings neat and the grounds clean are part of the duties of the Maintenance crew. Headed by Harry McCormick, Director of the Physical Plant, the crews work daily to keep the campus operating efficiently.

Humanities Courses Develope Culture

The culture of our people is not entirely inherited, much of it must be learned. The Humanities courses at BCCJC enable the student to learn more about how and why his culture has developed, as compared to other cultures.

Humanities courses include Art, English, Literature, Philosophy, Modern Language, Reading Improvement, Music, and Speech.

Man's Complex History Unfolds

In all of God's creation, man is the most complex, most mysterious, and most highly studied creature in existence. Every aspect of his behavior is observed and recorded in detail. The Social Science Division at BCCJC gives each student a better understanding of mankind and the society he has created. It enables the student to comprehend the problems of this society and motivates some to search for answers.

The courses included in the area of Social Science are Anthropology, History, Psychology, Political Science, and Sociology.

Mathematics Aid Business Courses

Business and Mathematics often go hand in hand. Facts and figures have to be calculated. At Barton College, Business courses are centered toward giving the student the best possible education in two years. Math courses are styled to give all types of background for any need. New this year were the mini-math courses instigated by Professor Larry Carter.

Courses offered are Accounting, Secretarial Science, Economics, Algebra, Trigonometry, Calculus, and Mini-math.

Students Study Complex Animal

Man is a complex creature. Many centuries of effort have passed in learning how to care for the creature man. At BCCJC, the Physical and Life Sciences give an insight into the workings and care of man and other animals.

Included in the Physical and Life Sciences are Astronomy, Biology, Chemistry, First-Aid, Micro-Biology, Nursing, Physical Science, and Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Students Enter Technological Fields

Technological advances have vastly increased over the last few years. With this new age of technology and mass communications, students are entering these fields daily.

At BCCJC, students have a chance to begin a career of today. The courses offered are Auto Technology, Drafting, Electronics, Machine Technology, and Welding. Mass communication courses offered are Broadcasting, Computer Science, Criminal Justice, Journalism, and Printing.

Student Senate: Forum for Student Opinions

The Student Senate, composed of six freshmen, seven sophomores, and two sponsors, comprises a forum for the expression of student views, the insurance of student rights, and the coordination of student affairs. The Student Senate, in trying to fulfill their purpose, not only worked to achieve social satisfaction for the student body, but also worked to aid the school and community.

Accomplishments included acquisition of a flagpole, promotion of campus movies, sponsorship of clubs, social events, athletics, and the Second Annual Inaugural Ball. Other projects sponsored to aid the community were drug-abuse programs given to students of Harrison and Roosevelt junior high schools, as well as mock state elections and jam sessions on controversial topics for BCCJC students.

INTERROBANG: First-Class Paper

The student newspaper, THE INTERROBANG, began its second year of publication with a twelve page issue on October 22, 1970. In September the newspaper received a first-class award from the Associated Collegiate Press. Marks of Distinction were awarded in the areas of coverage and content, writing and editing, and photography.

Following an eight-page format THE INTERROBANG uses editorials, news stories, columns, and feature stories to cover campus activities. Photographs are also an integral part of the publication.

With issues appearing every other Thursday, the editorial staff and college printers were kept busy creating the finished product. Editorial councils were held after each issue was published in order to discuss staff policies, improvements, and plans for upcoming issues.

Each issue of THE INTERROBANG is mailed to nearly 450 subscribers. The paper reaches twenty states and Canada.

Players Move Into New Home

With the completion of the new Fine Arts Building, the Barton College Players moved into their new home.

As one of the most active clubs on campus, the Players members also participated in "The American Dame," "Alice in Wonderland," and "Winnie-the-Pooh."

In addition to active experience with the theater, the Barton College Players also traveled to see others perform. Members attended the KSU Theta Alpha Phi Workshop to view "The Man of La Mancha," and the Experiment Five Workshop in Salina to study several plays from schools across the state. The Players also traveled to the Wichita performance of "Zorba."

BCCJC'S First Debate Squad Travels Widely

Seven students of BCCJC formed the school's first Debate squad. Members were Susan Walls, Shannon Schartz, and Mark Devaney from Great Bend; Celeste Meitner, Susan Ochs, and Karen Evers from Hoisington; and Dan Duppes from Ellinwood. Coach Pat McAtee had high hopes for his debaters and said that they "hope to build the debate program to make a name to attract people from surrounding counties."

The Debaters traveled as far as Tonkawa, Oklahoma, and Columbus, Nebraska. BCCJC was also one of the 75 schools from 19 states represented at the 15th annual Shocker Invitational Forensic Tournament held at WSU.

Law Students Form Group

The Sigma Phi Omega chapter of Lambda Alpha Epsilon consisted of 18 members, all of whom are majoring in Criminal Justice. Officers for the year were: Ed Catlin, president; Bill Sowles, vice-president; Daine Robl, secretary; Tom Pryor, treasurer; Mike Schauner, Sergeant-at-Arms. The fraternity participated in a Karate program, which is open only to Criminal Justice majors. Other activities included teaching a self defense program and testing German Shepherd dogs for the Air Force. During the banquet held at the end of the year, Bill Sowles was named Outstanding Criminal Justice Student of the Year.

Phi Psi's Organizational Effort Finally Pays Off

One year of organizational effort was rewarded with the initiation of twenty charter members on October 6, 1970, into the Phi Psi chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, the national honorary fraternity of the junior college. Other highlights of the year included a state meeting held at BCCJC on September 17, 1970, to write a tentative state constitution and plan the program for the convention of all state chapters and the state convention held on February 12-13, 1971, at Colby. Phi Psi officers for 1970-71 were Duane Lanterman, President, Rod Guthrie, Vice-president, and Nancy Lindholm, Secretary-Treasurer.

Delta Nu Aids Journalists

The official organization of the Delta Nu chapter of Beta Phi Gamma, a national coeducational journalistic fraternity, culminated with Student Senate approval of the constitution and by-laws on September 16, 1970. The purpose of the organization on the national level is three-fold — to serve and promote the welfare of junior colleges through journalism, to establish cordial relationships between students and the profession, and to unite congenial students interested in journalism. The ten charter members as well as any new member remain eligible by maintaining an overall scholastic average 2.0 and a journalism courses 3.0 average. Officers of the local chapter for the school year 1970-1971 included: Sharon Nicolet, President; Mark Loughrige, Vice-president; Sharon Collier, Secretary-Treasurer.

Sigma Society Serves College

Sigma Society, a girl's service sorority was formed last spring. The Society is an outgrowth of the national Soroptimists. The girls choose one service project each month, either for their school or community in addition to being Cougar Hostesses.

Radio Provides Communication

In November a Radio Club was formed at BCCJC. With sixteen original members the purpose of the Club is to provide a means of communication between the students and the community.

During second semester a recruiting program was launched and several fund-raising projects were sponsored by the Club. The Club members attempted to promote KBJC and interest other students in the field of broadcasting.

Under the guidance of sponsor Bill Ohlemeier and assistance of station manager Leon Alexander the format of KBJC's broadcasting was altered to include more student involvement and new programs.

Applied Science Benefits Students

The Applied Science Club was organized for all people interested in auto technology. Approximately 25 students belong to the club, which meets every two weeks. The club views educational films over welding, drafting, and other machines. A banquet was held for shop foremen. Officers are President Larry Wagner, Secretary Steve Ehrlich, and Treasurer Jay Mai. The club is sponsored by Mr. Ruben Samora.

Art Reformation Of Today: Art

The art club at BCCJC originated this year under the direction of Raymond Bachura and Jon Ulm. Officers responsible for organizing and building the club were: Sherry Lemuz, president; Becky Slack, vice-president; Debbie Simonson, secretary and treasurer. The club's major activity for the year was an art auction which brought in $420. This money was used to buy the needed supplies and equipment for the art department. The 25 members of the club also had the opportunity to listen to the guest speakers Mick Jilg and Craig Calanan who are now working on their M.F.A.'s at Wichita State University.

Psi Theta Members Develop Socially

Psi Theta, the psychology club, was organized during second semester. The purpose of the club is to promote a better understanding of psychology and to develop more dynamic relationships between club members. Officers for the year were Cecil Ellis, president; Rod Guthrie, vice-president; and Marla Whorton, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Anita Meeker is club sponsor.

Barco Yell Squad Keep Going Strong

Leading the college yells at all athletic meets are the Barco cheerleaders. Under the direction of Miss Pat Bauman, the girls suffer through many hours of practice in order to keep going strong during each game. Returning sophomores are Joan Weiser, Brenda Williams, and Nancy Lindholm, all from Great Bend. Freshmen are Rita Hammerschmidt, Phyllis Breckenridge, and Anita Seidl from Great Bend; Carolyn Kincaid and Kathy Wise from Ellinwood.

Roundballers No. 1 in Defense

BCCJC's basketball team concluded its second season with an improved seven win-seven loss division standing and stands as the No. 1 defensive junior college team in Kansas. Numbering only seven players, the Cougars took advantage of long practice sessions and the coaching ability of head coach Dick Nagy to compile an overall 14 win-11 loss record. The Cougar roundballers scored 1,854 points while only giving up 1,696 points to the opposing teams.

1970-71 Track Team Broke Many School Records

The 1970-71 BCCJC Track Team broke many school records as five Cougars qualified for the National Junior College championships to be held in Mesa, Arizona.

Mike Scheufler qualified for national competition with great heaves in both the javelin and discus while in Arkansas. At Hutchinson, Jan Voth also qualified in the javelin for the Nationals.

In the running events, speedster Jim Greene ran a 21.9 second 220-yard dash at Wichita to qualify while Danny Marrs, Cougar pole vaulter qualified for national competition with a 14 ½ foot school record jump.

With only 20 men on the Cougar squad, the tracksters never placed below 4th place in any tournament.

Inexperience Doesn't Hinder Runners' Enthusiasm

The 1970-1971 Cross-Country team was composed of eight runners, seven of them freshmen. Even though Coach Jack Bowman was faced with the problems of inexperience and a small squad, he found the team had desire and enthusiasm. The team consistently faced larger and more experienced schools, yet managed to place in each encounter.

The girls tennis team at BCCJC completed another successful year with 15 wins and no losses to become the college's first undefeated tennis team. The team was coached by Pat Bauman and consisted of Mary Skolaut, Chris Keller, Shirley Sloan, Mona Guesnier, and Judy Cate.

Golfers Play "One At a Time"

Golf Coach J. B. Webster commented that it "could be or could not be a good year. We'll play 'em one at a time and see what comes out at the end."

They began last September by coming in eight strokes behind the last years' KJJC champion, Hutchinson. Brad Biddle, the only returning sophomore, finished one-under-par to tie the Hutchinson leader.

With the cold winter, the golfers kept in shape with the Ny-Lo-Sco practice net and the "T-T-F" (Turf-Tee-Floor).

Mo-Fo's Capture Championship

Although BCCJC does not have a football team, one hundred young men braved the stickers and sharp rocks on the college football field to participate in intramural "flag football." The rules officiating class called the action for the eight teams participating. A strong Mo-Fo team defeated all opponents to win BCCJC's first intramural championship.

Intramural Ball: Hard and Fast

With over 150 men taking part in intramural basketball, the first semester schedule consisted of eleven teams with the Profs taking 1st place. A sportsmanship trophy was awarded to the Nets for outstanding sportsmanship.

In second semester action, seven teams participated and the Profs again secured the championship with an undefeated season. The Dirty Dozen took the sportsmanship award.

Director of Intramurals Gary Tranbarger coordinated the intramural activities with the Rules Officiating class calling the plays.

Russian Speaker Questions Policy

Gennady Stachevski, Counselor General to the Permanent Soviet Embassy to the United States, spoke to a crowd of 300 BCCJC students on the 23rd of April in the Fine Arts Auditorium. His topic was "Aims and Goals of Soviet Foriegn Policy."

Stachevski was invited to BCCJC by Professor Martin and was sponsored by the Student Senate, History, Journalism, and Political Science Departments.

Brazilian Student Enjoys America

Ubata, Brazil, is home base for BCCJC's own foreign exchange student, Almerisio Braga Lopes who is at home in America with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis and their sons Bill and Chuck. Coming from a nine member family, this twenty-year-old Brazilian gets along well with friends and acquaintances largely due to his ever-present smile.

Al's educational background includes elementary school and gym in Ubata, Ubata Normal College, and Taylor-Egidio College. Soccer is one of his special interests as he played defensive right back on the Ubata Flamingo Sport Club team. His other interests are singing and playing the drums. Vivid impressions of America which have pleased Al include music, movies, and food.

Athletes' Home: Cougar's Den

The Cougar's Den serves as a home away from home for sixteen BCCJC athletes. This two story structure, housing scholarship athletes, is located at 1723 Park in Great Bend.

The Cougar Booster Club appointed a committee last spring to find a large house for athletes. The house had to meet five requirements: it had to be big; it could not be bought, only rented; it had to be in an area where zoning laws would not prohibit leasing; someone was needed to rent and remodel the house; and the house had to be furnished.

Several appliances were donated to contribute to the athletes' comfort, including a color television set with cable TV and free installation of a telephone. Each athlete pays $35 a month for rent and buys his own food.

John Badwey, sports editor of The Great Bend Tribune, volunteered to supervise the athletes.

First Fumble Bowl Aids Hope, Inc.

The Profs, made up of BCCJC professors and Cougar Booster Club members, defeated the Police and Fire departments 18-0 in the first annual Fumble Bowl Game. The game was held on Sunday, December 20 in an effort to raise money for Hope, Inc. The event netted $237 to be used to aid mentally retarded adults.

Coaches for these two teams were Police Lt. Lyman Reese and Professor of Criminal Justice, Dennis Elam. Identification of each individual is impossible, but the white uniforms are filled by the Profs.

Female Enhances Campus Patrol

The five men and one woman of the Campus Patrol successfully protected the BCCJC campus from vandalism. Two members of the squad were on duty from five to seven o'clock on weekdays and all day on weekends. Members of the squad were Bill Sowles, captain: Ed Catlin, Lieutenant; Tom Pryor, sergeant; Mike Drake and Mike Davis, patrolmen, Diane Robel, patrolwoman.

Karate Proves Entertaining

A karate club sponsored by the college chapter of Lambda Epsilon is engaged in study-practice of hard-fist Karate. In this form of Karate, protective equipment is worn to protect the student from blows delivered at full force from either the hands, feet, knees, elbows, or the body.

The course is offered to students who are members of the law fraternity and have either a major or minor in criminal justice. The club belongs to Ryukyu Karate Association of Okinawa with Bill Wiswell of Kansas City as their local instructor. Seiya Oyaka of Okinawa, a tenth degree red belt, is overall instructor of this form of Karate which was brought to Okinawa from China in the 1600's. Karate, a modern form of old oriental fighting is a top source of entertainment and physical training. It instills confidence, self-control, and is a continuing source of exercise and self-defense for all ages.
